J. B. Bond, Attorney at Law, Columbia, Tennessee, Will practice in Maury and adjoining punties. jan. 21-76-ly.

C. W. Witherspoon, Columbia, Tennessee. Will attend with promptness to all Lega Business entrusted to his care, in Maury and adjoining counties. Strict attention to col-lection and settlements of all kinds. Office —Whittborne Block. jan, 28-77-ly.

P. H. Southall, Jr., Attorney at Law, Columbia, Tennessee. Special attention given to collections Office:-Whitthorne Block, jan, 1-77-ly. A. M. LOONEY. W. J. SYKES.

Looney & Sykes, Attorneys at Law And Solicitors in Chancery, Columbia, : : Tennesse

W. C. Taylor, Attorney at Law And Solictor in Chancery, Columbia, Tennessee. Office:-With McDowell & Webster, Whit-thorne Block. Jan, 1-78-iy. GEO. C. TAYLOR. R. H. SANSOM Taylor & Sansom, Attorneys at Law And Solicitors in Chancery, Columbia, Tennessee. Will practice in Maury and adjoining counties, and in the Supreme and Federal Courts at Nashvile. Special attention given to the collection of claims. Office: South side public square. Jan. 28-77-1y.

John V. Wright, Attorney at Law And Solictor in Chancery, Columbia, Tennessee. er owe:-Whitthorne Block, Up-stairs.

Attorneys at Law And Solicitors in Chancery, Columbia, Tennessee.

Main Street, 2nd door from the square.

W. J. WEBSTER. E.C. M'DOWELL, McDowell & Webster, Attorneys at Law

J T WILLIAMSON Attorney at Law,

Columbia, Tennessee. Aug. 21-1877. ROBT. M. McKAY. H. P. FIGUERS McKay & Figuers ATTORNEYS - AT - LAW

J. T. L. COCHRAN, Attorney at Law And Solicitor in Chancery. Prompt attentions to collections. Office-So. 05 West Seventh Street, Columbia, Ten-sep7 77 1y. COLUMBIA,

ALBERT AKERS, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Room No. 28 Colonade Building. NASHVILLE, - - TENN. Will attend to all business entrusted to his care with promptness. Refers to Third National Bank of Nashville. may is-ly

R. M. BIDDLE, Homeopathic Physician, Columbia, Tennessee. Office—Gilice in the Depot Hotel, Refers to Drs. J. P. & W. C. Dake, Nashville, Tenn.; Dr. L. D. Moore, Memphis, Tenn.

W. C. SHEPPARD, SURGEON DENTIST. Columbia, Tennessee.

Office-Next door to Methodist Church.

DR. J. M. TOWLER, DR. B. J. HARLAN.

A full partnership has been formed this day between Drs. Towler and Harlan. They will practice their profession in all its branches. Dr. Harlan will attend to all calls during the absence of Dr. Towler in

First National Bank Of Columbia, Tennessee

Capital, $100,000. Does a General Banking and Exchange Business.

T. W. KEESEE, President. LUCIUS FRIERSON, Cashler. JOHN T. TUCKER. W. F. TUCKER.

J. T. & W. F. TUCKER. Wholesale and Retail

Grocers

Commission Merchants

North-east Corner Public Square,

Columbia, : : : Tennessec Cealers in cotton and all kinds of produc

Liberal advances made on goods in stera Nov. 19-76-ly. LAND SALE,

PURSUANT to a decree of the Honorable Chancery Court at its April term, in the case of J. J. Granbery vs. Mrs. A. G. Jack-son, et al., I offer for sale a very desirable ne on the Mt. Pleasant pike, known the Milt Voorbies place, about two m from the public square in Columbia. S has a splendid well and cistern, and good apple and peach orchard. The house con-

THE HERALD AND MAIL

By ALFRED S. HORSLEY.

COLUMBIA, TENNESSEE, FRIDAY, AUGUST 2, 1878.

VOL. XXIV. NO. 2.

SOUTHERN TRADE

PALA

-MOVED BACK TO THEIR-

Attorney at Law, OLD STAND

With an Entire New Stock!

IMMENSE BARGAINS OFFERED

NOW IN EVERY ARTICLE!

JUST RECEIVED New Dress Goods! New Dress Goods! New Dress Goods!

EXQUISITE DRESS GOOOS FOR KILT SKIRTS!

EXQUISITE DRESS GOODS FOR WALKING SUITS!

EXQUISITE DRESS GOODS FOR POLONAISE!

SILKS ANY COLOR FOR TRIMMINGS!

A. M. Hughes & Son, Prices to Suit the Smallest Purse!

Will practice in the Courts of Maury and a houring countries, and Supreme and Federal Courts at Nashville. The strictest attention will be given to all business entrusted to their care. Office:—South side West Best Linen-Faced Prints. temember Choice Calices,..... Lonsdale Bleached Domestic, yard wide,..... Handsome Linen Lawus... Seautiful Pacific Lawns,.... mmense lot of exquisite Hamburg Edging, 2 inches wide,..... 10 " 121 and 15 ets. Hamburg Edging, 21 inches wide,..... New Style Lace Mitts from 20 ets. to $1 a pair.

Great Sale of Ladies', Men's, Misses' and Children's Custom-made Boots and Shoes, Newport Ties and Slippers. We will close out this Stock at almost any price Regardless of Cost.

ties. Prompt attention given to business entrusten and the store without selfing him all the goods he wants.

CLOSING OUT SALE OF CLOTHENG. We will not let a customer wait up stairs, No. 142 south side public square, Aug. 19-1877.

Southern Trade Plaace,

SOUTH SIDE PUBLIC SQUARE, TENN ESSE : : : : New York Palace:

No. 56 College Street, NASHVILLE, TENN.

CUSTOM GRINDING.

WHEAT AND CORN WANTED.

Market

Chaffin's Mills,

Located 1 Mile West of Columbia, on Hampshire Pike. Prepared at all times to do Custom Work. Machinery all new. Satisfaction guaranteed. G.T. CHAFFIN, Pro'r.

MOVE THE COLUMN!

CHAFFIN & RUSHTON,

AT PRICES THAT

DEFY COMPETITION!

Money saved by calling and getting our prices. Coffee, Sugar and Old Liquors a specialty. Lake Ice delivered in the city. Coffee fresh roast twice a week. CHAFFIN & BUSHTON,

BLACK & CHAPPELL,

LIVERY, SALE & FEED STABLE,

Nos. 5, 7, and 9 East Main St., Columbia, Tennessee.

Black & Moore's Old Stand,) privately by the first Monday in October, If not sold privately by the first Monday in October, I will proceed to offer said place to the highest order, at the count-house door in the town of Columbia, on a credit of six, twelve and eighteen months, except the sum of two hundred dollars in cash, note [with approved personal security, and a tien retained on said and until paid.

J. J. GRANBERY,

July 12, 1878.

Will keep always on hand FIRST-CLASS SADDLE AND HARNESS HORSES, BUG-fered" after her contemptuously.

"I am a pardoned convict," he said proudly. "In the terrible prison to consciton with this stable there are two large sneds for the accommodation of drivers and mules. Unclestform by Douglass still holds the reins of the "OLD RELIA-telled" after her contemptuously.

"I am a pardoned convict," he said proudly. "In the terrible prison to consciton with this stable there are two large sneds for the accommodation of drivers and mules. Unclestform by Douglass still holds the reins of the "OLD RELIA-telled" after her contemptuously.

"I am a pardoned convict," he said proudly. "In the terrible prison to consciton with this stable there are two large sneds for the accommodation of drivers and unless. Unclestform by Douglass still holds the reins of the "OLD RELIA-telled" after her contemptuously.

"I am a pardoned convict," he said to children; two which your cowardice condemned the "I am a pardoned convict, he said to children; two which your cowardice condemned the "I am a pardoned convict, he said to children; two which your cowardice condemned the "I am a pardoned convict, he said to children; two which your cowardice condemned the "I am a pardoned convict, he said to children; two which your cowardice condemned the "I am a pardoned convict, he said to children; two which your cowardice condemned the "I am a pardoned convict, he said to children; two which your cowardice condemned the "I am a pardoned convict, he said to children; two which your cowardice condemned the "I am a pardoned convict, he said to ch

THE FORGED CHECK.

Cleora Duhamel was a belle, an heiress, and motherless. Her father, a wealthy merchant engrossed in busiss, imagined that money would do mything, and so left his only daugher to tutors and governesses, master

When Cleora entered society, at the age of eighteen—thus her father will-ed—she became at once one of the queens of the circle in which she moved, and ran such a course of co-quetry, extravagance and pleasure, as only a girl with her beauty, temperas ment and bringing up was capable of. Her father's attention was first attracted by her extravagance. Miss Cleora's monthly allowance, though too ridiculously large to be told here, was not nearly enough for her. Ev-ery month bills were sent in for her father to settle, and in spite of remonstrance, and even something sterner, and though the one creature that this spoiled heiress stood in awe of was her father, still those bills grew. One month, Mr. Duhamel threaten ed to withdraw his extravagant daughter from society entirely. The next, he declared, in the most solemn manner, that the next time she overran her allowance, he would himself no-tify the various fashionable trades-

One day Frank Reeve, a young clerk in the employ of Mr. Duhamel, astonished that gentleman by asking or eighteenth year, as a writer for the his permission to marry his daughter, periodical press. She contributed tleman had been guilty, reached home tirst sustained effort was the translation of Strauss' "Life of Jesus," (1846) ummoning his daughter, reproved speedily followed by her second, an ady had ever listened to before, judgng from the impression it made, "You ought to be proud of your work, Miss," declared Mr. Duhamel angrily. Frank Reeves has got himself into real trouble this time, and there's no doubt in my mind that he would never have done so a crazy a thing if his long them to a prominence which has since to a prominence which has since the perfect of the President cy perforce. Arr. Beck is not a Tilden man by a jugful, and he says if the long through allows the published "Adam Bede"—

she asked tremblingly; but the merhant, absorbed in his own reflections did not notice that. "In Newgate, of course."

"Oh, papa! Cleora Duhamel rose to her feet white and palpitating.
Mr. Duhamel lifted his keen black yes to her face, scrutinizingly. "It would be easy to finaging that you had some personal inter st in this young scamp," he stid, coldly. Cleora clapsed her hands and lookd at him with trembling lips. "Well?" exclaimed the merchant ngrily, rising also, "Papa, what made you let him go

"Really? Why should I not pray Come, come, miss. It is a good thing or you, I see, that he is disposed of." "Papa, Frank Reeves never forged anybody's name in his life;" and Cle ora burst into tears for the second ime that evening. "He don't deny it himself," repeated Mr. Duhamel with added indigna-tion and amazement at his haughty daughter's espousal of the young man's cause.

As Cleora made her escape from the room, he began to pace up and down, muttering, "She's self-willed enough to anything. I'm glad he's where h is, though I always liked the young tellow. It's odd too that he wouldn't defend himself. Neither denied nor owned it. Some mystery there, but it's not my business to solve it." Frank Heeves was tried for forgery pleaded "not guilty," but refused to give any account of the forged sheed he had certainly presented at the bank and received the money on. He was sent to prison for five years. During the trial, a woman, plainly attired and closely veiled, was observed to be unremitting in her attendance upon the proceedings; and the prisoner, it was noticed, seeme to watch for the entrance of this person, and to be uneasy fintil she came when his handsome face would flush slightly, his dark eyes brighten with pleasure, and he would resume his usual air of mingled pride and deter-

When Frank Reeves' bright young head vanished behind the ignomini-ous prison walls, he carried next his heart a little scented note, without adlress or signature, but written in an exceedingly delicate and feminine hand, and having in one corner a most dainty silver and blue mono-gram, "C. D." It said: "You are a hero. I am a cowardly creature, unworthy of you. But the day you are a tree man, if you do not despise me too utterly by that time, I will be your wife. Every hour of your heroic im-hair altered him very much. The way I have described, between two friend and comrade.

youth.

Some unexpected expression in that face seemed to strike Cleora.

"Frank," she exclaimed; and in her seals. Its said that a small herd of them frequently attack a true whale. "Frank," she exclaimed; and in her haughty voice was a new and piteous accent, "you have never forgiven me, their powerful teeth, like so many Frank! I have suffered, too." He did not say more, but his eye ering it with blood and wounds till lashed, and he uttered the word "suf- the great giant of the deep succumbs fered" after her contemptuously.

been one by one crushed out of me. I forgave you at first. Afterwards I grew bitter mouth by month, day by day. It was so little you needed to do to save me all that long horror, my

The Democracy will Retain Their Hold on good name, if you had stood by your own wrong doing." "Oh, Frank, I will atone! I am rich. We can go anywhere where you are not known," Cleora exclaim-

Good-bye. Without so much as touching her hand, he was gone.

In another country, Frank Reeves redeemed himself from the stain of that injustice once done him, and became an honest member of society of the opinion that the Republicans will bend their every effort to capture the next House of Representatives, if possible, and with that object in view that injustice once done him, and became an honest member of society of the opinion that the Republicans will bend their every effort to capture the next House of Representatives, if possible, and with that object in view that injustice once done him, and became an honest member of society of the opinion that the Republicans will bend their every effort to capture the next House of Representatives, if possible, and with that object in view that injustice once done him, and became an honest member of society of the opinion that the Republicans will bend their every effort to capture the next House of Representatives, if possible, and with that object in view that injustice once done him, and became an honest member of society of the opinion that the Republicans will bend their every effort to capture the next House of Representatives, if possible, and with that object in view that injustice once done him, and became an honest member of society of the opinion that the Republicans will be opinion that the Republicans will be obtained by cedars, and he had to keep up a keen watch for the General—and when the saw him coming he ran like a quarterhorse.

"Our nearest neighbor," the major of the opinion of the hour. Referring to the act of February 17, of the previous Congres, which, he said, was a quarterhorse.

"Our nearest neighbor," the major of the opinion of the hour. Because the next House of Representatives, if possible, and with that object in view the next House of Representatives, if possible, and with that object in view the next House of Representatives, if possible, and with the representatives of the next House of Representatives, if possible, and with the object in vi through his own patient endeavor.
Miss Duhamel never married.

George Eliot.

New York Times. So little accurate information has een given of George Eliot and the order in which her works have been people with whom she was most in published, that the facts of her life people with whom she was most in the habit of making bills, that they they must not trust her. Cleora believed him this time. No more bills were presented her father for payment.

The published, that they and labor are not without interest. It seems that she we have in Warwickshire a little more than fifty-eight years ago. Before it had published a novel or gained any iterary reputation she was wall be aven in London. tion she was well-known in London, whither she went it. her seventeenth clergyman, who had substantially Animals of the Ocean.

Toronto Globe.

On Thursday last an unprecedented arrival in our harbor (St, John's, N.

.,) took place. Two grampuses the eye is a large white patch.

them frequently attack a true whale, tearing large mouthfuls of fiesh with mastiffs around a wild bull, and covfame, being wholly inferior to her compositions in prose. Up to the present, "Middlemarch" is ranked by incendiary specifies against the rights of present. It is it states mauship so soon after the the mass of her readers and the ma- of property, and then they will use adjournment to forget all this? these atterances as evidence that the country requires the services of a jority of critics as her masterpiece. trong man at its head to protect the CAPTURING A GRAMPUS. interests of all capitalists and land-owners, of whatever degree. Thus One of the Most Ferocious and Formidable etary and landed interests of the country in favor of Grant, and by thus deing they hope to sweep him into power by a resistless majority.

large size were observed spouting with great vigor and dashing about in a be-wildered, frantle manner in the waters of the harbor. They had, probably been tempted to pass the narrow entrance of the harbor while in pur-suit of caplin, which are now around the coast in enormous shoals. After a time one of them escaped, and made pened, disclosed an array of powerful teeth, farty-four in number, large, conical and somewhat hooked, those farthest back being flattened at the peller. The head is short and rounable lower law somewhat bent upward? It has three fins—two pectorals, large and oval, and a dorsal nearly on the middle of its body. The color of the Justice of the Peace at the fail cleeskin on the back is a deep black, the sides and abdomen being white. Over on. Maj. Levant was probably one of the along the highway.

The Levants lived on an adjoining farm to the Mount Vernon estate,

SENATOR BECK.

Congress-Grant Sure to be the Republican Nominee-The National Leaders Playing into Grant's fights in all the close and doubtful Congressional districts in the country.

Nevertheless he is confident that the lived close to us and were relatives of Weshington, who frequently visited present Democratic supremacy in the Washington, who frequently visited House may be maintained in the next one. "We may lose three members in the Pacific States," said he, "but we will gain three in Missouri, and that will equalize matters there. In Ohio and Indiana we will make large gains, Everybody in the neighborhood was and we will hold our own in Illinois, and, perhaps, make gains in New York and Pennsylvania. We may nie turned out." lose one member in Mississippi, but one in Florida, and several others in shire, Massachusetts and Connecticut we will gain two in South Carolina the South, so that any gain the Re-publicans may make in New Hamp-Of course he received a very abrupt of course he received a very abrupt and peremptory "No," for his answer; and the merchant, not doubting that Cleora herself was answerable for the presumption of which this young general course her equivalent that all states are made and the merchant, not doubting that the merchant the merc Cleora laughed at first, pouted afterwards, and ended by crying.

Less than a week from that time

Less than a week from that time ture that never was a legal body, and of secession for which they Cleora received another lecture, couched in much briefer language, but eloquent beyond anything that young 'ommittee, as he regards it as being bellion. adopted her. They at once attracted attention by their freshness and vigor of treatment, and brought her penname, then read from the substantially part of the scheme to make a martyr of Sam Tilden, and to keep him prominently before the Democratic party attention by their freshness and vigor of treatment, and brought her penname, then used for the first time, into a prominence without time, inreal trouble this time, and there's no doubt in my mind that he would never have done so a crazy a thing if his head hadn't been turned about you."

"What has poor Frank done now?" and took rank as one of the first of and took rank as one of the first of living novelists. "Adam Bede" in troduced her to the literary world at lasge, to the readers of this country as lasge, to the readers of this country as look only to the dreary past. The republican particular to the dreary past. The republican particular to the dreary past. The republicans of the two great parties were to meet to-morrow the Democrats would nominate Thurman and the Republicans Grant. Speaking of Grant, the Senator said: "If any man the Republicans Grant, the Senator said: "If any man the Republicans Grant, the Senator said: "If any man the Republicans Grant, the Senator said: "If any man the Republicans Grant, the Senator said: "If any man the Republicans Grant, the Senator said: "If any man the Republicans Grant, the Senator said: "If any man the Republicans Grant, the Senator said: "If any man the Republicans Grant, the Senator said: "If any man the graph of the dreary past. The republican particular to the dreary past. The republican by a jugitul, and he says if the conventions of the two great parties were to meet to-morrow the Democrats would nominate Thurman and the Republicans Grant, the Senator said: "If any man the graph of the dreary past. The republican by a jugitul, and he says if the conventions of the two great parties were to meet to-morrow the Democrats would nominate Thurman and the Republicans Grant, the Senator said: "If any man the graph of the dreary past. The republican by a jugitul, and he says if the conventions of the two great parties were to meet to-morrow the Democrats would nominate Thurman and the Republicans Grant, the Senator said: "If any man the graph of the dreary past. The republican said the dreary past. The republican said the dreary past. The republicans the conventions of the two great parties of the drear "He has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

Mis Cleora started, and turned and white all in a breath.

"Papa, how do you know."

"Papa, how do you know."

"Papa, how do you know."

"The disconting the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been forging the name of Dulamel & Co."

"The has been fo

ery to present it at the bank himself, even."

Who is George Eliot?" was widely discussed in London, most persons Silence some moments. Miss Cleorage was paler and paler, and twisted her black curls with nervous white fingers.

"Papa, what will you do with him?" she asked presently.

"I do nothing. The law he has outraged will give him a period in prison, probably. Serve him right, ioo."

"Do you know where he is now." The Mill on the Floss," was publicated and sale and solute and nobility, keeps him and still fresh in the minds of the people as a great man. Next year," said the royalty and nobility, keeps him out of political combinations at home and still fresh in the minds of the people as a great man. Next year," said the noble firmness of a mule ever sikete and seventhem about a policy they only and nobility, keeps him out of political combinations at home and still fresh in the minds of the people as a great man. Next year," said the noble firmness of a mule ever sikete and sever the country asked them about a policy they only and nobility, keeps him out of political combinations at home and still fresh in the minds of the people as a great man. Next year," said the matter, should legisted the noble firmness of a mule ever iskate at once with a view to the country asked them about a policy they only and nobility, keeps him in the minds of the people as a great man. Next year," said the noble firmness of a mule ever iskate at once with a view to the country asked them about a policy they only and nobility, keeps him out of political combinations at home and still fresh him the minds of the people as a great man. Next year," said the noble firmness of a mule ever isket at once with a view to them about a policy they only and nobility, keeps him out of political combinations at home them about a policy they only and nobility, keeps him out of political combinations at home them about a policy they only and nobility, keeps him out of political combinations at home them about a policy they only and nobility ke stored it richly. Her second novel, "The Mill on the Floss," was published in 1859, and amply sustained her fame. "Silas Marner," regarded by many as the best of her books, came two years after, and in another came two years after, and in another ence to the will of the people thus and in another expressed, and nominated he will be. year, "Romola," which, though the most artistic of her stories, has never bad the wide acceptance of the others. So the land to discount the effect of the appropriations from the national bad the wide acceptance of the others. By this time she was everywhere Enown to be Marian Florlah, albeit moster algorithm of the land to discount the effect of the reception by exposing the means by which it will be caused, and thus open the eyes of the people to its fraudulent character. Mr. beck thinks that the last southern republicans are more eager and united for subsidies and internal improvements than Southern Democrats.—
In the last several volumes of potenty, but they have not enhanced her fame, being wholly inferior to her compositions in prose. Up to the hey hope to bind together all the monmals, be merciful to dumb animals, be merciful to the household help, be merciful to peevish children, and don't forget that their poor mothings.

But I can be more and over went the boat, drowning the survivors. The Indians pulled the boat ashore, found little or nothing, and then pushed her into the stream to float on to her wreck. Given the sky is less brassy, when the sir grows less like a hot moist blankets want, well known in this vicinity for the past forty years, died at 4 o'clock.

But I didn't care about staying any less like a lost boat, without thinking of the Montana was been on the lookout for the past forty years, died at 4 o'clock. The past forty years, died at 4 o'clock. The past forty years, died at 4 o'clock off the perspiration, then will be time.

the past forty years, died at 4 o'clock off the perspiration, then will be time wreck, as he believes the gold was so prison get a reduction in time of two time one of them escaped, and made its way to sea, but the other, being pursued by a boat's crew from Her Majesty's steamship Sirius, with a view to capture it, headed for the western side of the harbor, and at length got entangled in some piles and became completely powerless, its tail having become fast between two stakes. Ropes were passed around it, and it was dragged ashore, where it soon died. It proved to be a full-sized yesterday morting from the effects of enough to urge yourself on the usual overheating. He was stricken down by the heat on Tuesday, but recovered, is exceptional and temporary, and calls got entangled in some piles and became completely powerless, its tail having become fast between two stakes. Ropes were passed around it, and it was dragged ashore, where it soon died. It proved to be a full-sized grampus, twenty-five feet four inches in length, and fifteen feet in girth at its thickest part. Its mouth, when opened disclosed an array of powerful content of the first part. Its mouth, when its thickest part. Its mouth, when its thickest part. Its mouth, when opened disclosed an array of powerful content of the first part. Its mouth, when its thickest part is thickest part. Its mouth, when its thickest part is thickest part. Its mouth, when its thickest part is thickest part is the first part is the part of powerful content part is the part of the first part is the first part is the part of part is the Plumb street deput at 0:30 A. M., where they will be conveyed to the function need the helping voice of the servant of Christ. He defended him from his ble man in many respects; has held farthest back being flattened at the summit. The tail is seven feet in width, and forms a very powerful propeller. The head is short and rounged the strictest fidelity. He had reached the advanced age of bl years, and hower law somewhat bent upward the advanced age of bl years, and had body, had the strictest fidelity. The head is short and rounged the advanced age of bl years, and this career was that marked by his great humility and patience to missfortune. The first Washington was right, and Mr. Davis, the second the advanced age of bl years, and still vigorous in mind and body, had still vigorous in mind and body, had been supported by his career was that marked by his great humility and patience to missfortune. The tail is seven feet in important civil and military positions, and all his duties were performed with the strictest fidelity. He had reached the advanced age of bl years, and washington, was right? This expending the conception and force of the second that the strictest fidelity. The head is short and rounged the strictest fidelity. The head is short and rounged the strictest fidelity. The head is not probable, as she never estimated the strictest fidelity. The second the strictest fidelity. The second the strictest fidelity. The second the strictest fidelity and patience to missfortune. The tail about her appearing in new cases of the second that the strictest fidelity. The second the strictest fidelity and patience to missfortune. The tail about her appearing in new cases and the strictest fidelity. The second the strictest fidelity and patience to missfortune. The first Washington was a character without at least a season's full study. She is now study and patience to missfortune. unnounced himself as a candidate for pression and another one—'Mr. Davis, ing (Wieid, but it is doubtful whether worthy of your of the the time, of the the t oldest soldiers in the United States, geon or a high sheriff is heard coming been able to discover the color of her said there was to be a witness for whom surprises and compensations.

erawl over the fence into Washington's fields and pick cherries without permission from the owner. In these oyish raids Washington would not infrequently be seen coming up the lane mounted on horseback, wearin a cocked hat, accompanied by a black servant also on horseback, and then there was a scamper of the truants to a place of concealment until the protiful woman cannot atone for. That is what I came to tell you, and—— him and had a little chat with him on though at times mild and gentle. The bavis was received. In this paper, though at times mild and gentle. The bavis was received. In this paper,

> Everybody in the neighborhood was there, white and black, and the Light Horsemen and other military compa-

> > General Garfield's "Idees."

New York Herald. If we may believe what General Garfield said in a recent interview the will be overcome by them." Alto- republican leaders still hope and exgether the Congressional prospect for the lower House was first-class, while campaign on the "solid South." He "and giving the seat to the rightful South" will drain the Treasury, and owner, Spofford. Kellogg holds the seat by virtue of election by a legisla- way the rightfulness of the principle his commission is signed by a man It remains only to be added that General Garfield regards the continuation in power of the republican party as ecessaty to protect the Treasury from spoliation and the country from re-General Garfield has sometimes been thought to possess statesmanship; but surely it is not the part of : statesman to turn his back on the real wants of his country and look only to do things moderately while it lasts, cept one man wounded and the wo'. Be merciful to yourself, be merciful to man and girls. The cannon was fired suployes, be merciful to dumb ani- once and over went the boat, drown-you were never investigated! —elicited she will appear in it next season. Her round after round of applause," visit to Europe, particularly to Paris,

What We Should Do.

The Paget family, of England, into when leaving she said, "Creighton, I which Miss Minnie Stevens, the beautiful daughter of the once widely- a few Parisian merchants where I can har attered him very much. The years, the confinement, and the companionship of brooding thoughts, had graven upon his face sterner lines than had marked that handsome counternal marked that nipulations of a mesmeriser. Sudden one or two occasions had a hand in association of terror in their imagin- you are fu'ly aware that you have inations, the same as is experienced by deed seen the Princess. She is so truly some country boys when a noted sur- well dressed that you have not even ler. bonnet strings,"

The Levants fived on an adjoining farm to the Mount Vernon estate, and it was but a few minutes' walk to Col. Lewis' old mill-dam on the estate, the mill having been burned down during the revolutionary war; the boys would go fishing in the pond and, leaving their poles set, they would

NEGROES IN THE CONFEDERACY. Their Employment in the Army-The Subject Suggested by Jeff. Davis

[Edward Sphncer in Philidelphia Weekly Times.] Nevertheless, the die was cast. The army could not be recruited any more, ed, sweeping towards him, and extending her white bands entreatingly.

He lifted his sombre eyes once to her peerless face.

"Miss Duhamel," he said, "there are some things that even money cannot buy—that even the love of a beautiful woman cannot atone for. That him and had a little chat with him on the political situation. The Senator is the political situation. The Senator is the political situation. The Senator is the political situation in the avenues of the political situation. The Senator is the political situation in the avenues of the political situation. The Senator is the political situation in the avenues of the political situation. The Senator is the political situation in the avenues of the political situation in the political situation. The Senator is the political situation in the political situation in the political situation in the political situation. The senator is the political situation in the poli previous Congres, which, he said, was less effective than it was expected to be, he remarked: "But my present purpose is to invite your consideration in the propriety of a radical mod-ification in the theory of this law. The slave, he said, was to be viewed not only as property but as a person under the law. His service to the State increased in value in proportion hem a modicum of relief.

Hon, James A. Sedden, Secretary of

Davis' message with some still strongrard against going on at that time,- visit to Europe, particularly to Paris, is mostly on a "shopping" tour, as as he became a veteran. For this he should be rewarded as well as his master. He would not advise anything further just now than the equit- when he misses a ferry boat. table determination of these relations. He was opposed at the present to the general boy and arming the slaves as soldiers, "But should the alternative ever be presented of subjugation, or of the employment of the slave as a sol-Sabbath, excuses himself thus; dier, there seems no reason to doubt what then should be our decision." In fish are wicked enough to bite on Sunhe meantime he would recommend day, they ought to suffer for it." the training of 40,000 negroes, of du-A house on First street, Louisville, ties under the act of Febuary 17. This nessage, in which the duty of the State to the slaves as persons was fair-lyland fully and ably stated, opened the whole question at once, and henceforth down. the history of the negro enlistments is recorded in the proceedings of the Confederate Congress and the State Legisatures. The soldiers in the different but by tam, I pays no total tax. I's camps, as soon as the question was got no total, and I never had any. agitated among them, gave it their hearty approval, and adopted resolutions to that effect. The poor fellows were so hard bested that they welcomed any measure which promised

It is the confession of a widower, War, in his report, supplemented Mr. who has been thrice married, that the first wife cures a man's romance, r recommendations of his own. The daves, he said, had even a stronger third makes him a philosopher. interest in the victory of the Confederates than the white people. The latter risked their political independence, citement Dr. Cheever called on an old ham, of Virginia, introduced bills to extend and perfect the operations of extend and perfect the operations of extend and perfect the operations of the act of February 17, 1864. "Well, pastor, I will, if you insist on the act of February 17, 1864. "Well, pastor, I will, if you insist on it; but, really, I'm too mad to pray

In the Missouri below this point is a | that if those we have now on the statmanza amounting to $110,000 in gold. Lute books were enforced to the letter, In 1854, opposite Bismarck, there was mine-tenths of the population would massacred a boat load of miners re-turning from Montana. They had in The intellectuality of Boston is all ie bottom of their flat or mackinaw, pervading. It is said that at every $110,000. There were eighteen miners, one woman and two girls. They stopped a short time at Fort Berthold, and were there warned by F. F. Gidrard was the trader at Berthold-the Indians down the river were bad, The man who carries around the contribution box in church sught to and the prospector trouble good. The be supremely happy; he can see how miners, however, declined the advice, much every one puts in, and no one them a little cannon and plenty of Particular to a shade. Office Page : arms. An Indian afterwards related Please, sir, was the money you give to Girard the story of their fate. When they were nearly opposite the present site of Bismarck they ran into an Indian trap. On the east lank of the river the Indians appeared and fired a I gone and lost it."

me for yer lunch a two-shilling piece or 'arf a crown?" Clerk: "Haif a crown. Why?" Office Page; "Cos river the Indians appeared and fired a I gone and lost it."

The mercury has mounted to the nineties in the thermoneter. It is hot as—well—fire! Take chings easy. Such weather does not come often nor stay long. Everybody can afford to the sand-bank near the water's odge another and more numerous band. The stay long. Everybody can afford to the sand-bank near the whole crew expectations while it lasts.

Tell us not in mournful numbers Life is but an empty dream; Let a man but eat cucumbers, And a nightmare it will seem.

months from each year of their terms

"Bob Creighton" Mitchell in the Danbury News,

A curious case of hydrophobia is reorted from Norfolk, Va., where a ung man has died, in all its terrible agonies, from the bite of a pet owl. A Innehester (England) boy of five

Alma Tadema, the distinguished There is reason to believe that Sena-tor Conkling will be a witness before in regard to female form: "I do not

FACTS AND FANCIES.

A young man calls his sweetheart "Revenge," because she's sweet, Yes, dear Lucille, we believe it was

Longfellow who wrote "the Hanging of the Crayon," An eight-dollar hat over fifteen cents worth of brains is a very common sight now-a-days

The lightning rod swindlers will soon begin to operate. Spare the rod -but kill the agent, The woman who maketh a good adding in silence is better than she who maketh a tart reply. Now the clerk at two dollars per week, Is beginning to yourn vacationwise; And in fond dreams, so to speak, Is languishing country relationwise.

Mathematics. Freshman at board, Professor—"Mr. E., what have you got?" E. (innocently)—"Ive got stuck!"

every grain you give a fowl it gives a

You can't go back on the name of over the spirit of your orthographical Attention, Ben Putler! Now's your hance. A French doctor claims to have discovered a process for making homely men pretty. London Truth: "Lucky people are always people endowed with high spirits, and high spirits are one of the great forces of life." A man often feels light-hearted on bearing of the demise of a wealthy relative, but this can't be said of him Elinore writes to ask "If any man ever rode upon a star?" - Cartainly, my dear, don't you remember when Balaam had an asteroid? Hay? A newspaper man who breaks the wherein occurred some of the scene's depicted by Mrs. Stowe in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," has just been torn A German farmer disputed his tax bill. He said: I pays the Stafe tax, the county tax, and the school tax;

An exchange in a moment of rapts ure, wants to know "the difference between a claret punch and a pretty girl's lips." The difference is, the latter don't go good through a straw.

second teaches him humility, and the "Julius, is dat Halafactus reward settled yet?" "I dunno, Coperinions, but the former their very existence as of representation is makin music but I reckon not, for l'Iserve de house islate at once with a view to the con- never bathe. Ta dumpty, thum, to tingincy of negro enlistments. On | deet! to deet!

> In this State, laws are made by the bundreds every year, and it is a fact bench show of dogs the classical curl of the Boston dog's tail enables, you to distinguish him from the rest when all and thought they would pash out for can tell how much he takes out—of his the next landing. They had with pocket to put in.

A gentleman of Louisville has a dog

News,

It is true that she has been advised by her physician not to appear as Lady Macbeth, although in conception and died of hydrophobia last month, caused by the bite of a car two months be-the Potter committee, and that he will agree with you that nature is harmoe called at the request of Gen. But- nious and truthful. Nature seems to Some days ago Chairman Potter | me rather to follow the principle of Gen. Butler had made great prepara-tions, and later information confirms have ugly—or if not ugly, ignoble,